Keyword: July

Articles are selected for credit designation based on an assessment of the educational needs of CME participants, with the purpose of providing readers with a curriculum of CME articles on a variety of topics throughout each volume. Activities are planned using a process that links identified needs with desired results.

To obtain credit, read the material and complete the Posttest and Registration Form on pages 1021–1022 or go to PSYCHIATRIST.COM and complete the Posttest and Evaluation online.

CME Objectives

After studying the articles by Chaudieu et al and Volavka et al, you should be able to:

- Monitor elderly patients with a history of trauma and PTSD for cardio-ischemic diseases and metabolic syndrome
- Use evidence-based antipsychotic treatment to decrease hostility and aggression in patients with first-episode schizophrenia spectrum disorders

Accreditation Statement

The CME Institute of Physicians Postgraduate Press, Inc., is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation

The CME Institute of Physicians Postgraduate Press, Inc., designates this journal-based CME activity for a maximum of 2.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Date of Original Release/Review

This educational activity is eligible for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit through July 31, 2014. The latest review of this material was May 2011.

Financial Disclosure

All individuals in a position to influence the content of this activity were asked to complete a statement regarding all relevant personal financial relationships between themselves or their spouse/partner and any commercial interest. The CME Institute has resolved any conflicts of interest that were identified. In the past year, Alan J. Gelenberg, MD, Editor in Chief, has been a consultant for Axis Healthcare, Dey Pharma, PGxHealth, Myriad Genetics, and Zynx Health; and has been a stock shareholder of Healthcare Technology Systems. No member of the CME Institute staff reported any relevant personal financial relationships. Faculty financial disclosure appears with each article.

This pretest is designed to facilitate your study of the material.
